NEW Cheshire Choice

Enjoy some of Cheshire's best loved historic houses and view the beautiful city of Chester from the water on this tour. Step back in time with a visit to Port Sunlight Village and visit the popular city of Liverpool.

Tour itinerary

Day 1 Travel to your hotel in Cheshire

Day 2 This morning, travel to Tatton Park, one of the North West's most popular attractions. The visit includes admission to the Georgian Mansion House, the extensive gardens and the working farm. Afterwards spend some time in the charming town of Knutsford exploring the cobbles and courtyards that were the basis for Elizabeth Gaskell's "Cranford".

Day 3 Today's excursion is to the Roman walled city of Chester. Enjoy a guided walking tour of the city with an informative guide before taking to the waterways for a relaxing cruise along the river Dee. The 30 minute cruise includes a commentary and sails beneath the suspension bridge, Grosvenor Park and Earls Eye. This afternoon is free to walk the city walls, shop or explore at leisure.

Day 4 Cross the county border into Merseyside and to William Hesketh Lever's Port Sunlight Village of living history. The visit includes an interesting film presentation at the Sunlight Vision Museum followed by a guided tour of the village on your own coach and a complimentary tablet of Sunlight Soap for each visitor. Cross the Mersey this afternoon to visit the World Heritage city of Liverpool and enjoy the iconic waterfront attractions, historic music links, various art galleries and museums.

Day 5 Homeward journey with a recommended stop at the Blakemere Shopping Experience.

Holiday Inn Runcorn, Cheshire

Our opinion: Situated in a residential area within easy access of the M56, this group friendly, impressively furnished, hotel is excellently located for excursions in all directions. The bedrooms are of a good standard and the public areas benefitted from refurbishment in 2008.
