

Ireland

The Galway Coast

Clifden, Co. Galway
Tourism Ireland

The spectacular west coast of Ireland boasts dramatic scenery combined with wonderful Irish charm. This tour spends 3 nights in Galway and features a day trip to the fascinating Isle of Inis Mor, the largest of the Aran Islands.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Afternoon sea crossing from North Wales, then to overnight stop in the Dublin area. Tour can be amended for crossings via Scotland or South Wales if preferred.

Day 2 Travel to Galway with free time in the city before checking in to the hotel.

Day 3 Full day excursion through the dramatic scenery of the Connemara National Park. Included is a visit to Dan O'Hara's Heritage and History Centre, near Clifden. After a short film on the history of the area, join a "tractor-train" ride through the site. The humorous and informative guide will demonstrate how to cut turf and take you on a tour of a pre-famine farm. Back at the heritage centre learn how to make the perfect Irish coffee with a taster provided of course!

Day 4 Board the ferry for a full day excursion to Inis Mor, the largest of the three Aran Islands. Tour the island's ancient Christian sites and scenic points before a 2 course lunch at the Aran Islands Hotel. There is time after lunch to wander around the shops on this remote island community, before boarding the ferry back to the mainland.

Day 5 Depart Galway after breakfast and head to Dublin. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure before checking in to the overnight hotel. A guided city tour can be arranged, ask us for details.

Day 6 Morning ferry crossing and homeward journey.
