Austrian Lakes, Salzburg and The Sound of Music

Lake Hallstatt
Austrian National Tourist Office

The Austrian Lakes are found close to Salzburg in the famous “Sound of Music” country. The area offers lush pastures and sparkling lakes, with the most dramatic scenery being reserved for “The Traunsee”. Our charming 3 star superior hotel overlooks Lake Traunsee in the village of Altmünster. This tour is packed with extras and can include no less than 4 UNESCO heritage sites.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Channel crossing. Overnight in Belgium.

Day 2 Into Germany for dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 3 Cross into Austria at Salzburg and on to the Austrian Lakes for a 5 night stay.

Day 4 An included guided walk of Altmünster. In the afternoon travel to nearby Traunkirchen for an included guided visit to the 12th Century Jesuit Monastery.

Day 5 Full day around the Salzkammergut Lakes. We suggest stops in St Wolfgang, Bad Ischl and at stunning Lake Hallstatt. After dinner we include a schnaps tasting at the hotel.

Day 6 A day at leisure to enjoy Altmünster with time to stroll along the lake shore and explore the village.

Day 7 Full day excursion to Salzburg, filled with period architecture and culture. Return via picturesque Mondsee with its famous “Sound of Music” church.

Day 8 Leave Austria. Overnight in Germany.

Day 9 Leave Germany and travel to Belgium for dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 10 Short Channel crossing to Dover and home.
