

Holland

Volendam, Amsterdam and Edam

Traditional houses, canals, the harbour and drawbridges all combine to make Volendam one of Holland's most picturesque towns. Its position only a few steps from the old fishing port and the many shops, restaurants and cafés, makes our historic 3 star superior hotel a wonderful retreat. This tour offers the possibility of either a weekend or a midweek break to the heart of historic Holland.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Short Channel crossing. On past Gent before proceeding to Volendam for a 3 night stay.

Day 2 A morning at leisure to explore Volendam. In the afternoon travel through the Dutch countryside stopping in Edam before travelling on to visit the charming town of Haarlem.

Day 3 A full day in Amsterdam, Holland's cosmopolitan capital. See Dam Square, wander along the canal side streets and visit any of its world class museums.

Day 4 South with a possible stop in Brugge before travelling on to Calais and home.

Hotel Spaander, Volendam

Our opinion: The 3 star superior Hotel Spaander is an extraordinary hotel which has a collection of over 1500 works of art displayed throughout the building. It offers a mix of old world charm and modern facilities, from the traditional style and décor of the dining areas to the comfortable rooms and indoor swimming pool.
