West Country Railway

A midweek tour combining a relaxing cruise along the Grand Western Canal with a railway journey to the coastal resorts of Somerset and Devon.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Travel to Devon with a recommended stop at Cheddar Gorge en route.

Day 2 A morning free in Tiverton before a gentle cruise along the Grand Western Canal by horse-drawn barge. During the journey you will hear some tales about the canal and often there is a minute's silence so you can experience the true peace and tranquillity of travelling by horse-drawn barge. A Devon Cream Tea will also be served during the 2½ hour journey.

Day 3 Join the West Somerset Railway, Britain's longest steam railway, for a scenic ride through the Quantock

Hills to the resort of Minehead. Time at leisure in Minehead before continuing your journey by coach along the Somerset and Devon coast or head across Exmoor to return to the hotel.

Day 4 A tour of the delightful villages of Devon. Head north to the market town of Barnstaple with an interesting stop at the Quince Honey Farm en route. Alternatively, journey to the south coast and the pretty seaside towns of Sidmouth and Seaton.

Day 5 Homeward journey.
