Yorkshire TV and Bronte Country

Yorkshire's wonderful scenery makes it a natural setting for many nostalgic films and TV shows. From our base in the centre of Harrogate, excursions are taken to combine scenes associated with the shows with glorious scenery, quaint towns and pretty villages. The services of local guides are also used to enhance the visitor experience.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Travel to Yorkshire and the hotel in the centre of Harrogate. Allow free time this afternoon to explore this delightful Victorian spa town. Worth a visit is the famous Betty's Tea Rooms just across the road from the hotel. With its ornate fascia and delicious cakes Betty's is the perfect place to enjoy afternoon tea.

Day 2 Morning visit to Esholt, the village that provided the original setting for the TV series Emmerdale. Continue to Haworth for a Bronte themed guided tour. Begin your tour in the village with a recital of the Bronte life story told in the church before visiting the charming canal-side village of Kildwick.

Day 3 Travel via the historic city of Ripon to the beautiful olde worlde town of Thirsk. This was home to the legendary vet who wrote under the pseudonym of James Herriot. A visit is included to his surgery, now open as a fascinating Visitor Centre tracing his life. Afternoon excursion to the delightful village of Goathland, the setting of the popular TV series Heartbeat. Followers will recognise several locations around the village, not least the pretty station on the restored North York Moors Railway.

Day 4 Homeward journey, travelling first to Holmfirth where much of "Last of The Summer Wine" is filmed. A walking tour of the town is included to reveal many sites familiar to regular viewers.

The Yorkshire Hotel
