Harz Mountains, Goslar and Berlin

Goslar
GNTB/Norbert Krüger

The Harz are Germany's most northerly mountain range. A region rich in legends, including the famous Pied Piper, these mountains are charming and unspoilt. The area is peppered with small towns and villages where the splendid and colourful half-timbered buildings reflect the prosperous past of this region. Our 4 star hotel is found in the pretty town of Braunlage in the heart of the Harz Nature Reserve. This tour is based on a Sunday departure but variations can be arranged on request.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Channel crossing. Overnight Belgium.

Day 2 On to Braunlage, in the Harz Nature Reserve, for a 4 night stay.

Day 3 Day at leisure to explore and to enjoy the hotel's excellent facilities and location. The village is within walking distance but by prior arrangement the hotel offer our guests a free mini-bus service.

Day 4 A full day to visit Goslar, a town featured on the World Heritage List, followed by Bad Harzburg, for the opportunity to take a cable car trip, and then, finally, Wernigerode, a picturesque town in the 'Old East'.

Day 5 A long but worthwhile day to the German capital Berlin, whose many historic sights and attractions include the Reichstag and the Brandenburg Gate.

Day 6 Begin the journey home today, stopping for dinner and overnight in Belgium.

Day 7 Channel crossing and home.

Maritim Berghotel

Maritim Berghotel, Braunlage

Our opinion: A 4 star hotel with a super location at the foot of Mount Wurmberg and with magnificent views down on the town. The hotel is surrounded by pine forests. Facilities include both indoor and outdoor swimming pools, a bar, restaurant and gardens.
