NEW Shropshire and the Severn Valley

Stokesay Court

Enjoy a weekend in Shropshire including a journey through unspoilt countryside on the Severn Valley Railway and a visit to the museums celebrating the history of Ironbridge Gorge.

Tour itinerary

Day 1 Travel to the hotel in Stourport

Day 2 Enjoy a scenic excursion through the Shropshire Hills and a visit to Ludlow "Shropshire's Food and Drink Capital". We recommend a stop at the Ludlow Food Centre which offers a wide variety of local produce and is an ideal lunch stop. This afternoon take a behind the scenes tour of Stokesay Court made famous as the setting for the film adaptation of Ian McEwan's Atonement.

Day 3 This morning take the short journey to Kidderminster for a scenic journey on the, fully restored, Severn Valley Railway. Disembark at Bridgnorth and continue north for a visit to the Ironbridge Gorge Museum. The included passport ticket allows entry to all of the attractions including Blists Hill Victorian Town where costumed staff offer a fascinating insight into what life was like in Victorian Times.

Day 4 Homeward journey via a recommended stop in the cathedral city of Worcester.
