St Anton, the Alpine Explorer

St Anton is found in the western Tyrol, close to the Arlberg Pass and a short drive from northern Italy, Switzerland and southern Bavaria. It offers a pretty village centre with a host of bars, cafés and restaurants as well as a location which affords wonderful excursion possibilities.

There is no single room supplement on this tour.

Tour Itinerary

- Day 1 Channel crossing. Overnight in Saarlouis.
- Day 2 On to St Anton am Arlberg for a 5 night stay.
- Day 3 A full day at leisure in St Anton. There's lots to do in the village and it's possible to take a cable car into the mountains to enjoy lunch and stunning views.
- Day 4 Full day to Innsbruck, starting with a scenic drive along the Inn Valley, where many hilltop castles can be seen. See the Golden Roof, Imperial Palace and Hofkirche, and take time to relax in this wonderful city at the heart of the Alps.
- Day 5 Full day excursion over the Fern pass and into Bavaria to Garmisch Partenkirchen. After time at leisure continue to Oberammergau, with its many painted houses. Return via the scenic Lechtal. Today it is also possible to visit King Ludwig's castles Linderhof or Neuschwanstein. Please request details if required.
- Day 6 A full day excursion travelling west into Vorarlberg for a visit to Feldkirch, with its maze of small streets, and to Vaduz, capital of tiny Liechtenstein.
- Day 7 Depart Austria, travel through Switzerland and into Germany for dinner and an overnight stay at Saarlouis.
- Day 8 Short Channel crossing to Dover and home.
