Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Travel to Cambridgeshire with a recommended stop in Ely to visit the spectacular cathedral, built by William the Conqueror. Proceed to the hotel.

Day 2 Morning excursion to the university city of Cambridge for a 2 hour guided tour. You will cover the most important aspects of the city, University and colleges. This afternoon proceed to Audley End House and Gardens. This is one of England's grandest stately homes with beautiful interiors and an impressive collection of artwork. A recent addition to Audley End House has been the opening of the restored servants' quarters providing a fascinating insight to life "downstairs".

Day 3 Journey to the Suffolk coast to visit the beautiful villages of Southwold and Aldeburgh, followed by a scenic tour through the Maltings. Afternoon stop in Bury St Edmunds, a town which dates back to medieval times when it grew up around the gates of the great Benedictine monastery founded in 1020AD. Time at leisure to wander around the town, including a visit to the Abbey Gardens with pleasant riverside walks, aviary and tea shop.

Day 4 Homeward journey.
