NEW York and the Yorkshire Railways

The Yorkshire Railway

This new itinerary features the best of the beautiful Yorkshire Dales National Park with two scenic railway rides and a visit to the historic city of York.

Tour itinerary

Day 1 Travel to Yorkshire with a recommended stop in Holmfirth where "Last of the Summer Wine" is set.

Day 2 A full day locally guided excursion through the Yorkshire Dales National Park, to the pleasant market town of Appleby. Board the famous Settle to Carlisle Railway for the journey south to Settle for more wonderful dales scenery. Rejoin the coach and return to the hotel.

Day 3 Journey to Keighley for a ride on the Keighley and Worth Valley Railway to Haworth, where there is time to explore the 'olde worlde' shops. Journey by coach to Oakworth Station, where scenes from The Railway Children were filmed before continuing to Oxenhope Station to rejoin the train for the return ride to Keighley.

Day 4 Visit York for an included Treasure Hunt around the city. Follow the clues to reach your final destination whilst taking in the history and culture of this walled riverside city.

Day 5 Homeward journey.

Ramada Bradford/Leeds

Our opinion: This impressive country house hotel was fully refurbished in 2007/8 and successfully combines the historic character of the public areas with contemporary bedrooms in the newer accommodation wings. An ideal base for touring the Yorkshire Dales and under an hour's drive from York.
